

14,589 Iraqis will wake up this morning in U.S.-run prisons, will be guarded this afternoon by American guns, will be hooded, blindfolded, poorly fed or starved, beaten or abused again at the hands of our fellow Americans.

Torture in Iraq

2 years of inaction

Justice is no longer the sole responsibility of Bush or the military—they have copped out. It is the duty of us all.

